

GROWING HARDWOOD SAWLOGS FROM PLANTATIONS

HEARTWOOD PLANTATIONS FIELD DAY

Date: SAT 26th NOVEMBER 2011
Time: 8.30 am to 1.00 pm
Location: Depart & return - Radial Timber Sales, 12 Park Drive Dandenong Sth

Heartwood Plantations a vertically integrated forestry organisation that establishes, manages, processes and markets high-value, durable hardwood timber. Heartwood Plantations is a strategic alliance between Woollybutt Pty. Ltd. and Radial Timber Sales Pty. Ltd.

Schedule

Depart: Radial Timber Sales, Dandenong South 8.30 a.m.

Plantation visit: Goy Property & Seed Production site, Bunyip 9.30 a.m.

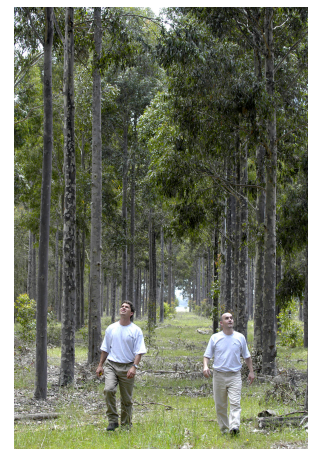

Inspection of a range of durable hardwood species including southern mahogany, spotted gum and yellow stringybark between ages 5 and 11 years. Learn about the source of seed for some of Heartwood Plantations' trees and management such as thinning and pruning.

Depart: Goy Property, Bunyip 11.00 a.m.

Timber sales: Radial Timber Sales, Dandenong South 11.45 a.m.

Inspection of a range of timber products and displays. Learn about the processing and application of durable hardwood timber, including plantation resources. Realise the market strength of high quality, durable hardwood timber products.

Conclude: 1.00 p.m.

Cost: No charge
Food: Morning tea & lunch provided - please inform if special dietary requirements
Required: Walking shoes, sun protection needs
Transport: Bus provided or self drive
Targeted to: IFA and AFG members, potential investors and policy makers

RSVP Mon 21st Nov: Jon Lambert OR Chris McEvoy jlambert@heartwoodplantations.com.au 0418 504 010 cmcevoy@heartwoodplantations.com.au 0439 900 452

Don't miss the chance to see one of Victoria's most innovative forestry organisations!

heartwoodplantations.com.au